QUOTE OF THE DAY

"From now to the end of consciousness, we are stuck with the task of defending art." – Susan Sontag

"Fine art is knowledge made visible." – Gustave Courbet

"Art is a revolt against fate. All art is a revolt against man's fate." – Andre Malraux

"To me, literature is a calling, even a kind of salvation. It connects me with an enterprise that is over 2,000 years old. What do we have from the past? Art and thought. That's what lasts. That's what continues to feed people and give them an idea of something better. A better state of one's feelings or simply the idea of a silence in one's self that allows one to think or to feel. Which to me is the same." – Susan Sontag

"One cannot condemn tendencies in art; one can only condemn works of art. To be categorically against a current art tendency or style means, in effect, to pronounce on works of art not yet created and not yet seen. It means inquiring into the motives of artists instead of into results. Yet we all know — or are supposed to know — that results are all that count in art." – Clement Greenberg

"We must be willing to let go of the life we have planned, so as to have the life that is waiting for us." – E. M. Forster

"You simply cannot invent any conspiracy theory so ridiculous and obviously satirical that some people somewhere don't already believe it." – Robert Anton Wilson

"Always behave like a duck --- keep calm and unruffled on the surface but paddle like the devil underneath." – Jacob Braude
